

Code of Conduct and Dress Code

The YCSD Code of Conduct and Dress Code must be adhered to the same as all other school functions. Student dress and appearance may include business casual and "Sunday" best attire such as dress pants, collared button down/polo style shirt, and dresses. Please refer to page 42 and pages 45-46 of the 2017-18 Student Handbook. Thank you for your cooperation.

YCSD Dress Code:

Headgear will not be permitted to be worn in the building except for educational, religious, or medical purposes. Headgear refers to a covering worn on the head including, but not limited to, hats, caps, sunglasses, and bandannas.

Footwear: Students must wear appropriate shoes at all times.

Shorts, Skirts, and Dresses: Shorts and skirts must not be shorter than 4 inches from the top of the knee. Form fitting clothing, such as yoga pants and leggings, must be worn with a garment that is appropriate.

Pants: All pants must be worn at the waistline. Rips in pants must be no more than four inches from the top of the knee.

Shirts: No shirts may be worn that expose under-garments or the midriff. All sleeveless shirts must have straps that are at least three inches wide. Necklines shall be modest and not revealing.

Clothing that is too tight or too revealing may not be worn. Examples of inappropriate clothing items include but are not limited to halter tops, pajama-like clothing, bedroom slippers, spaghetti straps, and off-the-shoulder, strapless or backless dresses or shirts.

Students' clothing, haircuts, tattoos or other accessories may not display any of the following:

Here are some examples of appropriate attire:

If there is uncertainty about the dress code, students are encouraged to meet with an administrator or send a picture about their clothing choice for the event.

Smart/cell phones are not allowed inside the event. Students choosing to bring the phones inside will need to check them in at the door when they arrive. The celebration is only for YMS grade 8 students, no guests allowed. Although groups of friends may choose to come together, this is not a "date" event. Students will be able to enjoy such events at high school (e.g., homecoming, ring dance, prom). Therefore, no limousines and no "prom" prosal at school.
